

Attorney One-Pager: Forensic & Dispute-Grade Financial Analysis

Bikram Sachdeva, CPA, CFE, PMP

WHO THIS IS FOR

Trial counsel, litigators, and law firms who need litigation-grade financial analysis that holds up under discovery, expert scrutiny, and cross-examination — particularly where fiduciary accountability, incomplete records, or contested narratives are central to the dispute.

WHAT I PROVIDE (IN SUPPORT OF COUNSEL)

Forensic reconstruction, schedules, contradiction analysis, and narrative exhibits designed for pleadings, mediation, arbitration, and trial preparation. Work is scoped with retaining counsel and delivered with a defensible evidence chain and reproducible assumptions.

TYPICAL MATTERS SUPPORTED

- Partition actions and equitable accounting
- Property / ownership contribution disputes and buyouts
- Breach of fiduciary duty, misallocation, misconduct
- Complex partnership or closely-held business disputes
- Matters requiring clear, court-ready financial narratives

LITIGATION-SAFE METHOD

- Reconstruction from primary source documents
- Schedules built for evidentiary use (not mgmt reporting)
- AI-assisted extraction with manual verification
- Clear assumptions and cross-examination readiness
- Confidential workflows aligned to counsel review

DELIVERABLES COUNSEL CAN USE

- Master contribution ledgers and tracing schedules
- Contradiction charts (claims vs. evidence) for depo/trial
- Narrative exhibits and visual summaries for briefs
- Expert-ready schedules and explanatory frameworks

ENGAGEMENT PRACTICALITIES

Typical timelines: 2–5 weeks depending on scope
Fixed-scope or phased engagements available
Redacted examples available on request

WHERE TO SEE WORK EXAMPLES

Work examples available via Allied Consulting Solutions → LitigAidPro \(Forensic & Dispute Support\) section on the ACS Work page: alliedconsultingsolutions.com/work.html

Bikram Sachdeva, CPA, CFE, PMP

bikram.sachdeva@gmail.com • 703-851-2099 • Washington, DC Metro

Boundary: Services are provided in support of counsel; not legal advice.